

WILSON PICKS CHAIRMAN

Name, However, Is Not Given Out

McCOMBS PROBABLY CHOSEN

Message Will Be Taken to Chicago by Hudspeth—A Busy Day for the Callers at Summer Home of Governor.

Sea Girt, N. J., July 13.—Governor Wilson put the final touches yesterday on the message which Robert S. Hudspeth will carry for him to the Democratic national committee in Chicago next Monday. The suggestions which he wrote out in shorthand Thursday night were discussed with him by Judge Hudspeth, William F. McCombs, Edward E. Grosscup, New Jersey state chairman; Col. Robert Ewing, national committeeman from Louisiana, and other leaders.

The governor has made up his mind, he said, as to whom he will select for national chairman, but will make no announcement of his choice except to the committee. Judge Hudspeth will carry an oral message, refreshing his memory from memoranda which the governor has made out for his guidance.

Callers of national prominence continued to ring the doorbell at the "Little White House" yesterday. Edward F. Goltz, national committeeman from Missouri, who talked with the governor Thursday night, came over from Spring Lake during the forenoon with Col. Ewing and Representative Broussard of Louisiana.

Col. Ewing said he had stopped on his way to Chicago merely to shake hands with the nominee. He added that they had discussed the national chairmanship, and that he had told Governor Wilson that he favored William F. McCombs for the place.

"Among the committeemen I have talked with, and I have talked with more than half of them," said Ewing, "I find no opposition to Mr. McCombs." Col. Ewing said he believed that it would be advisable to appoint a small campaign committee to direct the details of the fight. If necessary, he said, this committee might be selected outside the ranks of the national committee.

GOES OVER TO GOV. WILSON.

C. R. Crane, La Follette Supporter, Now Shifts His Preference.

Sea Girt, N. J., July 13.—Charles R. Crane of Chicago, who contributed very heavily to the La Follette campaign fund, and Charles Van Huse, president of the university of Wisconsin, a former ardent supporter of La Follette, will lunch to-day with Governor Wilson.

Wilson's close friends say Crane has transferred his preference from La Follette to Wilson and hailed his espousal of Wilson's cause as an index of the sentiment prevailing among La Follette's former followers.

TWAS AWFUL FOR BLUE SOX

Defeated by Sunset League Leaders, 15 to 5, Last Evening

GAME WAS PLAYED IN BARRE

Locals Put Up Ragged Fielding Game, While Their Pitchers Were Hit Hard by the Graniteville A. C. Sluggers.

The Barre Blue Sox of the Sunset league had been playing all its games away from home all season. Being anxious to annex last night's game as it would drop the percentage of the leaders somewhat and at the same time boost its own and diminish the distance between the leaders and the runners up, the management invited the Graniteville team to this city for last night's game. The "hill" team gave the Barre lads an unmerciful punishing, trimming them by a score of 15 to 5. The Blue Sox had fogged Tommy Davidson out in a uniform and were to use him as a stumbling block to the triumphant march of the Graniteville club. After nearly an hour of diplomacy, Graniteville outpointing the local team, it was decreed that the Barre pitcher should not be sent onto the hill. Another Tommy (Tomassi) was ushered to the firing line. The youngster has all the earmarks of a twirler for future days, but was not of the calibre to put a crimp in the batting slaughter of the quarrymen. Tomassi while not pitching a winning game was given wretched support, as many as half of the conquering team's runs being made off errors behind him. In the seventh, Tomassi was relieved on his own initiative, James Levie, the Barre shoe store baseball player, going on duty. In the last two innings Levie pitched masterful ball. The Blue Sox were guilty of seven errors. At times the manoeuvres of the losing team reminded the octogenarians in the large crowd of the ball played back in the days before the Indians burned South Barre. When the ball was batted into the outfield, the garden men would stand and watch it after it dropped for several minutes, and then hike after it, recollecting that they were really taking part in a baseball contest. There was not an inning went by but what one team or the other was banging the ball out like hot shot. "Bill" Stuart, the star Barre second baseman, surpassed all on the field. The former Spaulding captain negotiated for five out of five, one a double. "Ham" Robertson was next best for the Barre team. The agile second sacker pounded out three out of four. Duncan Fraser and Finnegan tied with the ash for the league leaders, each propping four times.

Notes of the Game.

The Graniteville team will win the pennant in a walk.

The league is favored by having the service of efficient umpires. Yesterday not a kick was registered against them. Godfrey, the stellar third baseman of the G. A. C., was compelled to retire early in the game, wrenching his left ankle as he slid into first base.

With plenty of practice, Levie should develop into a good slasher. He has excellent form, fine speed and a clever head, all the requisites of a good pitcher.

While not as nimble as in former days, "Ham" Robertson, the agile second baseman of the Blue Sox, has not a peer in the league at covering the middle station. He covers all space between first and second with the ease of a leaguer.

"Clay" Bishop, the left fielder of the Blue Sox, who gained a reputation at Goddard seminary this year, played a very loose game.

SENATE NEARS LORIMER VOTE

Senator Continues His Vicious Attack on His Foes

FIGHTS FOR SEAT IN SENATE

With Bitter Sarcaasm He Turns on Taft, Roosevelt, and Bryan—He Calls Golden Rule's Author to Judge Him.

Washington, July 13.—The Senate failed again yesterday to vote on the Lea resolution declaring Senator Lorimer's seat vacant. After Lorimer had held the floor five hours defending his title, the Senate took a recess until today, when an effort will be made to reach a final vote.

Lorimer bitterly attacked Senator Kern of Indiana, charging that he made mistatements and unfounded charges. He challenged Kern to show him guilty of wrong doing in any way.

He took up the evidence upon which his expulsion from the Senate is demanded, saying the charges of White were false and that White was an acknowledged perjurer, while Beckmeyer, Link and Holstrow, the other three who are alleged to have confessed receiving money from him, never confessed to being paid anything for voting for Lorimer.

When Senator Lorimer renewed his speech yesterday morning, in the presence of crowded galleries, he once more paid his respects in bitter sarcasm to President Taft, to Roosevelt, to Bryan, and to his other enemies.

He was especially sarcastic at the expense of Roosevelt growing out of the testimony of George B. Cortelyou Thursday with reference to the 1904 campaign contributions. He charged that his enemies had sneaked up behind him like a thief in the darkness of the night sneaks up to beat out the brains of his victim.

Senator Lorimer, wearing the appearance of a man baited and pursued by his enemies, with dramatic gestures and impressive pauses, said:

"At the close of my remarks yesterday I was discussing the attitude of the custodian of all the morals of the country, both private and public—he who would not have contributions from those who possessed predatory wealth. The malefactors of great wealth would not contribute to any campaign for his benefit. I find accounts in the morning papers that the chairman of the committee in his campaign of 1904 testified that $1,000,000 was contributed. And, of course, that came from the common people of whom the man is the great champion. No malefactor of great wealth contributed to this campaign, no trust, no combination of great wealth contributed to it, only the common people of whom he is the guardian."

"Oh, Mr. President," shouted Lorimer, "was any mortal ever more completely surrounded by conspirators and intrigue? The president of the United States, William Howard Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, the ex-president of the United States, the candidate of the Democratic party, William Jennings Bryan, all combined and joining in conspiracy to misstate the facts, joined with the trust press of this country, to poison the minds of the citizens of the country, that a man might be sacrificed to satisfy the malice of the most corrupt set of newspaper owners known to the history of this country."

After a pause, Senator Lorimer proceeded:

"I think, Mr. President, that while I do not claim anything I have stated here is evidence of anything, surely it shows that the men who are prosecuting this case are capable of conspiracy to do anything against a man they want to destroy, even to the taking of life."

Then Senator Lorimer proceeded in

AFTER LONG SUFFERING

These Two Women's Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Read Their Own Statements.

Cheneyville, La.—"Some time ago when in poor health, suffering from feminine ills, I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I soon felt better and gained in strength and flesh. A gradual improvement continued as I took the Compound, and from 120 pounds I now weigh 155, and feel that my life has been prolonged."

"I deeply regret that I did not know of your medicine long before I did. Friends often speak of the wonderful change in my health, and I tell them that your medicine did it."—Mrs. J. W. STANLEY, Cheneyville, La.

Distressing Case of Mrs. M. Gary.

Chicago, Ill.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache and it has certainly made a new woman of me. After my first baby was born I was left a perfect wreck. I was so weak I could hardly do my household duties and suffered with an awful backache. But since I have used your Compound the pains in my back have left me and I am strong again."

"My mother used it also through Change of Life and speaks very highly of it. You can use this letter any way you wish. I think it is only fair for one who has suffered as much as I, to let others know of your great remedy."—Mrs. M. GARY, 2568 N. Ridgeway Ave., Chicago, Ill.

vitriolic terms to score the Helm committee of the Illinois legislature.

Throwing up his hands and turning his face upward, Senator Lorimer dramatically cried: "Let Him judge who shall be the final judge whether it is correct to do unto others as you would have them do unto you. By that rule have I lived and by that rule shall I die, though all the world, including the Senate, shall condemn me."

LOSSES $8,000,000 IF SHE REMARRIES

Widow of M. C. P. Borden Left Great Fortune Under Strict Provisions.

New York, July 13.—The will of Matthew Challoner Durfee Borden, the millionaire Fall River mill owner, filed here, leaves his widow a sum estimated at $8,000,000—but which reverts to his children if she ever remarries.

This is the third millionaire's will with a similar provision which has attracted attention during the last few months. John Jacob Astor, lost with the Titanic, left over $5,000,000 to his wife, to revert to his son, Vincent, if she remarries. James A. Garland's widow forfeited an income of over $50,000 a year, from a $1,000,000 bequest, when she married Francis Cushing Green of New York, at Bourne, a few weeks ago. Borden's will is the third.

The Borden will is the most remarkable of the three, for Mr. and Mrs. Borden were married in 1865. They had seven children, of whom four are living. Mrs. Borden is in excellent health, but the probability of a remarriage at her age is very slight.

In the other two wills, however, the provision was more than a dead letter. Mrs. Garland threw all thoughts of money to the wind, wedding the man of her choice; while Mrs. Astor, formerly Madeline Talmadge Force, is only 19 years old.

Borden's fortune was estimated at $40,000,000. Under the will, the wife and the surviving children were to share equally. Four sons are alive, so that each son and Mrs. Borden receives a fifth share, or $8,000,000. In addition, Mrs. Borden receives all personal effects of her husband.

WITNESS SUPPORTS DARROW.

Hawley Put on the Stand to Explain Away Lawyer's Presence.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 13.—The defense in the bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow has struck at the very heart of the state's case—the allegation of Bert H. Franklin that Darrow had given him the money for the attempted corruption of George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara trial. Witnesses served the double purpose of accounting for the whereabouts of the accused on the morning of the alleged bribery expense and of tending to impeach Franklin's veracity. The mystery of the telephone message which called Darrow to the vicinity of the arrest of Franklin, which had been given much prominence during the trial, was cleared up by Charles O. Hawley, a former fire commissioner of Los Angeles. Hawley testified that he had called Mr. Darrow on the telephone and asked him to come to the Socialist campaign headquarters for a political conference with himself and Job Harriman.

Hawley, the last witness on the stand, was regarded as one of the best witnesses yet produced by the defense. He corroborated the testimony of Job Harriman as to the latter's movements on the morning of Franklin's arrest, as well as clearing up the much discussed telephone call. The former fire commissioner was given a vigorous grilling by Assistant District Attorney Ford. Under Ford's questioning Hawley acknowledged he had been interested in damage suits brought against the Los Angeles Times by the families of the men killed in the blowing up of The Times building. The prosecutor charged the witness with "stimulating lawsuits against The Times" and in reply to a protest against that line of questioning declared he would show that the witness was actuated by the same malice as the perpetrators of the crime.

ABSINTHE IS BARRED IN U. S.
